

Docket No.: 2000P9051US

REMARKS

The Applicant respectfully requests that the claims be modified as described above. The Examiner's Amendment referred to in the Notice of Allowability removed some of the instances of the term "computer code for" in claims 4 and 5, but the claims are more accurate if the term remains in those claims. For example, in claim 4, the computer code for placing the plurality of mobile units in a receiving mode includes computer code that synchronizes the mobile units to the single time slot.

Docket No.: 2000P9051US

CONCLUSION

It is respectfully requested that the amendments specified above be entered so that claims 4 and 5 are more accurately written.

No fee is believed due. However, if a fee is found to be due, then the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any fees or credit any overpayments to Deposit Account No. 19-2179 of Siemens Corporation.
